Local Information

A spacious, level, well drained caravan and campsite of some 2.8 hectares set in the heart of 1,500 hectares of Forestry Commission forest adjacent to the Rendlesham Forest Centre. The forest is open for walking and cycling (including way-marked trails) and you can see fallow deer, squirrels, rabbits and birds (including the Nightingale and Nightjar).

Don't forget to bring your bicycle to explore the Suffolk Coastal Cycle Route and surrounding forests, countryside, rivers and coast. Cycle and footpath maps are for sale in the shop.

The renowned Sutton Hoo Anglo-Saxon Burial Site is a short distance away using the tracks through the forest.

Forest Enterprise arranges special events during the year including a visit to the landing site of UFO in the forest!

You will be staying in a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and close to the Suffolk Heritage Coast.

Felixstowe is the main seaside resort, but for many the charms of the old coastal towns/villages, such as Aldeburgh, Orford, Dunwich, Southwold, Thorpeness and Walberswick may be more appealing.

The many nearby tidal rivers and creeks offer an opportunity to enjoy peace and quiet, attractive landscapes and nearby Orfordness or boat trips along the River Ore and around Havergate Island to view the wildlife of this protected area. There are also boat trips along the rivers Deben and Orwell as well as small ferries to take pedestrians across both these rivers and the nearby Butley Creek.

For those interested in history a visit to Dunwich (a major town before being swallowed by the sea) would be worthwhile. There are castles to visit at Framlingham and Orford and there is an abundance of interesting churches and other historic buildings in the nearby villages.

Other places of interest nearby include Woodbridge (with its famous Tide Mill), Shingle Street, Butley Creek, Felixstowe Ferry, Bawdsey, Ramsholt, Waldringfield and Snape Maltings.

As you would expect there are many traditional pubs and restaurants in the area providing a wide variety of food - including local oysters, crab and lobsters!

Whatever you would like to do we will try to point you in the right direction.
